A typical day at Kid Interdisciplinary Collection Brave Mindful And Creative begins with a morning circle. During morning circle, children gather together to sing songs, play games, and share stories. This is a time for children to connect with each other and build a strong sense of community.

After morning circle, children break into small groups for their interdisciplinary learning activities. These activities are designed to be fun and engaging, while also helping children to develop their critical thinking skills, creativity, and problem-solving abilities.

In the afternoon, children have time for free play. This is a time for children to explore their interests, socialize with their peers, and develop their imaginations.

At the end of the day, children gather together again for a closing circle. During closing circle, children reflect on their day and share what they have learned. This is a time for children to come together as a community and celebrate their accomplishments.
