Undeterred, we continued our exploration, scouring the Fungal Wastes, Greenpath, and Crystal Peak. We consulted with wise old sages and interrogated enigmatic NPCs, but all our inquiries led to dead ends. It seemed as if Celeste's nest site was a closely guarded secret, known only to a select few.

Encountering the Seer

As our search grew more desperate, we stumbled upon the Seer, a mysterious creature with the power to peer into the future. With trembling hands, we implored her to share her knowledge of Celeste's nest. To our astonishment, she uttered a cryptic prophecy:

Before us stood an immense tree, its branches reaching up to the heavens like celestial fingers. Suspended among the leaves was a nest of pure white silk, adorned with twinkling starlight. It was the nest of Celeste.

The Celestial Guardian

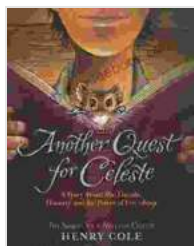

As we approached the nest, the air crackled with energy. A radiant form emerged from within the silken abode, her wings unfurled like a thousand stars. Celeste, the celestial guardian, had revealed herself to us.
