This is the unbelievable story of a man who defied the odds. Born with a rare and debilitating condition, he was told he would never walk or talk. But through sheer determination and the love of his family, he overcame every obstacle in his path.

Only One Mistake Only One was born in a small town in the Midwest. From the moment he was born, it was clear that he was different. He had a rare condition that caused his muscles to be weak and floppy. He couldn't hold his head up, sit up, or even breathe on his own.

The doctors told his parents that he would never be able to live a normal life. They said he would be confined to a wheelchair for the rest of his life and that he would never be able to communicate with others.

But Only One Mistake Only One's parents refused to give up on him. They loved him unconditionally and they believed that he could achieve anything he set his mind to.

They started working with him every day, helping him to strengthen his muscles and to learn how to communicate. They read to him, sang to him, and talked to him as if he could understand everything they said.

Slowly but surely, Only One Mistake Only One began to make progress. He started to hold his head up, sit up, and breathe on his own. He also started to learn how to communicate using a special sign language.

By the time he was five years old, Only One Mistake Only One was able to walk with the help of a walker. He could also communicate using sign language and he was even able to start attending school.
