Itinerary

With just two days to explore Rome, it's important to plan your time wisely. Here's a suggested itinerary that will allow you to experience the city's top attractions:

1. Day 1:

- Morning: Visit the Colosseum and Roman Forum
- Afternoon: Explore the Vatican City, including St. Peter's Basilica and the Vatican Museums

- Evening: Toss a coin into the Trevi Fountain and enjoy dinner at a traditional Roman restaurant
- Day 2:
  - Morning: Climb the Spanish Steps and visit the Pantheon
  - Afternoon: Wander through the charming Trastevere neighborhood
  - Evening: Take a sunset stroll through the Piazza Navona

Landmarks

Rome is home to some of the world's most iconic landmarks. Here are a few must-sees:

- Colosseum: This ancient amphitheater is one of the most recognizable landmarks in the world. It was once used for gladiatorial contests and public spectacles, and it can hold up to 80,000 spectators.
- Roman Forum: This archaeological site is the ruins of the ancient Roman city. It was once the center of political and social life, and it is home to many important buildings, such as the Senate House and the Temple of Jupiter.
- Vatican City: This tiny city-state is home to the Pope and the Catholic Church. It is also home to some of the world's most famous art and architecture, including St. Peter's Basilica and the Vatican Museums.
- Trevi Fountain: This beautiful fountain is one of the most popular tourist attractions in Rome. It is said that if you throw a coin into the fountain, you will ensure your return to Rome.

- Spanish Steps: This elegant staircase is located in the heart of Rome. It is a popular spot for tourists to relax and enjoy the views of the city.
- Pantheon: This ancient temple is one of the best-preserved buildings in Rome. It is known for its massive dome, which is the largest unsupported dome in the world.
- Piazza Navona: This beautiful square is home to some of Rome's most famous fountains, including the Fontana dei Quattro Fiumi.
- Trastevere: This charming neighborhood is located on the west bank of the Tiber River. It is known for its narrow streets, colorful houses, and lively atmosphere.

Food

Rome is a foodie's paradise. Here are a few of the city's most famous dishes:

- Pasta: Rome is known for its pasta dishes, such as carbonara, amatriciana, and cacio e pepe.
- Pizza: Roman pizza is thin and crispy, and it is typically topped with simple ingredients, such as tomatoes, mozzarella, and basil.
- Gelato: Italian ice cream is a must-try in Rome. It is made with fresh milk and cream, and it comes in a variety of flavors.
- Wine: Rome is located in the Lazio region, which is known for its red wines, such as Frascati and Montepulciano.

Here are a few of the city's most popular restaurants:

- Osteria Francescana: This three-Michelin-starred restaurant is known for its innovative Italian cuisine.
- La Pergola: This rooftop restaurant offers stunning views of Rome and serves modern Italian cuisine.
- Ristorante al Moro: This traditional Roman restaurant is
