As the sun peeked over the horizon, casting a warm glow over the bustling city below, Teddy the Time Traveler emerged from the depths of the past. His destination: the hallowed grounds of Liberty Island, where the majestic Statue of Liberty stood tall and proud, a beacon of hope and freedom for countless generations.

Teddy's tiny heart skipped a beat as he approached the colossal figure. Her flowing robes, sculpted with impeccable precision, seemed to billow in the gentle breeze, as if Lady Liberty herself was welcoming him to her presence. With a mixture of awe and reverence, Teddy gazed up at her towering form, his eyes tracing the intricate details of her crown, her torch, and the enigmatic expression etched upon her face.
